November 1, 2025

The meeting was called to order at 10am.

Present were Stan Williamson, President; Tony Angelo, Vice President; Anne Rader, Treasurer; Zak Wonson, Secretary; and Board Members Charlie Jones & Bonnie Radke. Dennis Buelk was absent.

Zak Wonson read the minutes of the March 1, 2025 meeting. The Minutes were approved.

Anne Rader gave the Treasurer's report. The Club's account balance is $6,015. $2,660 of that balance is tournament sponsorship money.

Unfinished Business:

Zak reported that most of the Civic Center renovation is complete. Mike Beall & Zak Wonson each have a door key. All of our usage dates have been reserved with Jonah Powers.

Zak reported that the remaining courts should be refinished in January. No date yet for work in the Cue House.

Zak suggested we buy a larger refrigerator for $100. Purchase approved. Tony Angelo has been handling water donations from members and the program has been very successful.

It was discussed that all new members must have a lesson with Bob Augusto before joining the Club. Bob is in charge of training new members and signing them up.

Zak thanked all who participated in our sponsorship program. The distribution of funds was discussed and approved.

Board elections will be in March 2026. There are five Board positions open. All club members are encouraged to step forward to keep the club running smoothly.

New Business:

The popular $1 Tournaments will start in December. Zak & Cindy will organize and announce starting date. There are two potluck dinners scheduled: Welcome Back Snowbirds on January 20 and End of Season on March 1. The Sweets & VanLares will host these events. Two Fun Days are also scheduled, February 14 and March 14, also hosted by the Sweets & VanLares.

We are still working on the rooster problem with the city and have been discussing it with Leisure Services.

The 2026-2027 Tournament Schedule was discussed. It was decided to continue with 5 tournaments for the 2026/2027 season with the same formats.

After discussion it was decided to hold playing clinics in December and in February for members. Dates to be determined.

Joan Sanderson and Greg Huggins are opening for play on Tuesday and Thursday nights.

Meeting adjourned at 10:40am.
